Pius Permitted by His Physicians to Stand in Window

AMERICANS CROSSED SQUARE

op Delivered a Message through Papal Cardinal Merry del Val.

ne, April 26.—The departure of Pius XI, brother of the pope, from the Vatican this morning is regarded as confirmation of the condition of improvement in the condition of the pontiff.

The pope was later permitted by his physicians to stand at the window of his bed-room and watch the American pilgrims crossing the door of St. Peter's to enter the Vatican for the first time since the death of his father, Pope Pius X.

American pilgrims under the leadership of the Right Rev. Bishop Schrembs, of Toledo, presented at noon in the ducal palace to Monsignor Thomas F. Kenney, secretary of the American college in Rome, Cardinal Merry del Val, who was accompanied by a large suite, the Americans in the name of the pope.

Deep Schrembs had written an address in French and English with the intention of delivering it to the pope who does not understand the English language. The bishop, however, used the English text when he presented to Cardinal Merry del Val, who had been delegated to the pope to thank the Americans for their visit to Rome.

Their long journey and the inconveniences they had endured had not been understood that the pope was seeing Pope Pius XI. The Americans then gave all the pilgrims their families the apostolic benediction. He also blessed the religious objects carried by the pilgrims, who presented Pius XI's Pence to nearly $1,000.

Cardinal Merry del Val, who was accompanied by a large suite, the Americans in the name of the pope.

EGENT MINE HORROR WILL EXACT A TOLL OF ABOUT 100 LIVES LOST

Five bodies were brought out this morning and removed to the Monongahela morgue for identification, making a total of 93 bodies removed to the morgue, 40 of which have been identified.

Members of the rescue crew said today that the men were found in a part of the workings where the air was good. They were back from the entry in a room, and although they did not know it, the rescue party had passed within a few yards of them a number of times without their knowledge. Bureau of mines men were of the opinion that there are no more persons alive in the mine. Tomorrow will be a day of funerals in the little towns along the Monongahela river. Quick burials are necessary now, and as fast as the bodies are identified they are removed to the houses from which the funerals will be held. Burial of the unidentified dead will be made as soon as orders are given by the coroner.

REAL ESTATE MAN COMMITS SUICIDE AS FRIENDS LOOK ON

New York, April 26.—Edward M. Gaines, a wealthy real estate operator, walked into a group of young men leaving a commercial school on Lexington avenue, last night, stood there for a few moments twirling his silver headed cane and then crossed the street where, in sight of all the young women, he pulled a revolver from his pocket and fired a shot into his right temple. He died in the hospital less than an hour later. The man was driven to his act by the tortures of an illness which had paralyzed him and which threatened his life. He had left his wife, however, in the early evening without any signs of the depth of his despondency.

A letter found in the man's pocket indicated that he had been promised treatment by Dr. Alexis Carrel of the Rockefeller Institute who recently won the Nobel prize for the distinguished work in surgery. There were eight other letters, three of them addressed to persons in St. Louis, which was his former home.

BROTHER GEORGE BOSS OF ALL OHIO FOR A SHORT TIME

Columbus, O., April 26.—Single handed and alone, George Burba, secretary of the governor, today resigned supreme in the executive office at the state house, and succeeded in pacifying scores of eager job seekers.

Early this morning, long before most people thought of waking up, and while the switch lights in the yards of the Union station were still doing duty, Governor Cox and members of the Ohio Socialist party, who were on duty on a day of strenuous sightseeing in the food stricken cities in northern Ohio.

That's why George Burba was doing the honors. However, after visiting Tiffin, Fremont and Delaware, the governor is expected to return some time late this evening. The governor practically speaking must be on the job Monday when the legislature reconvenes for a day.

Governor Cox had practically decided upon all of his recess appointments last night, but will give them another day of consideration tomorrow before sending them to the senate.

P. A. THOMAS OF WEST CAIRO HIGHLY HONORED

Columbus, O., April 26.—The state board of administration today named P. E. Thomas of Allen county, as warden of the Ohio penitentiary. Thomas will succeed Warden T. H. B. Jones who was refused reappointment by the board. The latter will return to Ironton.

ago he was made probation officer because of his success in dealing with the inmates of the institution.

Members of the board of administration who have watched Thomas' success at the Mansfield institution decided he was better qualified to fill the penitentiary position than any of the other applicants, and after an investigation the appointment was made by President Thurman.

PRICE DISLIKES FRICTION.

Cincinnati, O., April 26.—Arthur Price, judge of the police court of Cincinnati, announced today that he would resign on May 1, giving as his reason the state of his health.

Robbery was not the motive for the crime as nothing was taken from him. The man is in the Western hospital with terrible burns all over his body and is in a critical condition.

Pell, who disappeared some time ago, is said to be in the indictment, as it is taken to indicate that the grand jury is placing credence in the stories of the convicted men who are the principal accusers of the eight police officers involved.

SOCIALISTS OF OHIO FAVOR DESTRUCTION TO GAIN THEIR POINT

'Direct Actionists,' Whose Ideas in Many Ways Coincide WITH TACTICS OF I. W. W. FACTION

Succeed in Winning Momentary Victory After a Bitter Fight.

Columbus, O., April 26.—Direct actionists won a decisive point but lost the first scrimmage in a fierce contest on the floor of the Ohio Socialist convention held today. The direct actionists are held to be allied with the industrial workers of the world. In the preamble to the Socialist program for the control of the various local branches of the Socialist party, they secured today's recommendation for the employment of any and all methods that will have a tendency to destroy the capitalist system. This was the minority report of a committee of five appointed to draft the resolutions. However, the political actionists, after a storm of oratory succeeded in having inserted into the minority report a clause which subjects the Ohio program to the constitution of laws of the national Socialist party. The national program contains an inhibition against sabotage, one of the principles of the industrial workers.

The provision which was obedience to the national constitution is thus regarded as distinctly unfriendly to the industrial workers although the action of the convention in overruling the majority report was a victory for them. The majority report had recommended "such measures as are calculated to improve the condition of the working classes and strengthen them in their final overthrow of the capitalist system." This was regarded by the direct actionists as too mild.

The convention is said to be closely divided between the political actionists and the direct actionists. Bitter contention between them continued this afternoon. The convention is now engaged in framing a program for cities in Ohio during the next year.

The political actionists are led by E. L. Hitchens, of the Ohio Federation of Labor. His home is in Cincinnati. The direct actionists are led by C. E. Ruchensberg and Tom Clifford, of Cleveland, and Frank Midford, of Youngstown.

FAMILY OF SEVEN BARELY ESCAPES DEATH IN FLAMES

Johnson, president of the American league, here today. It was said that Cobb had been reinstated by Johnson pending the outcome of his application for reinstatement which the national committee is to consider at a meeting in Chicago next week. Johnson left his office "for the day" without making any definite announcement in the case.

HEALTH OF DUCHESS CAUSE OF ANXIETY TO THE CANADIANS

London, April 26.—Grave anxiety is caused by the condition of the Duchess of Connaught, wife of the governor general of Canada, who underwent an operation for appendicitis on April 10. The bulletin issued by the surgeons this morning says:

"The Duchess of Connaught passed a somewhat restless night. The improvement observed during the past few days has not been maintained."

CEMETERY OF POOR TO BE BEAUTIFIED BY A NOBLE WOMAN

OHIO SOCIALISTS ASKED TO CONSIDER STATE NEWSPAPER

Columbus, O., April 26.—Establishment of a state party newspaper, to be published in Columbus, was recommended to the socialist state convention here today by the committee on party press. W. J. Beery, at present a state organizer, has been suggested for the editorship. The convention will come to a close ago he was made probation officer because of his success in dealing with the inmates of the institution.

Members of the board of administration who have watched Thomas' success at the Mansfield institution decided he was better qualified to fill the penitentiary position than any of the other applicants, and after an investigation the appointment was made by President Thurman.

Irma De Puccio, called the "Queen of the Bunco Ring" was arrested last night as she was boarding a train and taken before the inquisitors.

TIRELESS SEARCH FOR YOUNG RAMONA BORDEN EXTENDED TO BOSTON

VON KLEIN'S LUCK DESERTS HIM WHEN HE MOST NEEDS IT

Chicago, April 26.—Edmund E. C. Von Klein, arrested recently on complaint of Miss Ethel Newcomb, who charges he induced her to marry him and then disappeared with her diamonds valued at $3,500, was identified last night by a second woman who says she was his "dupe."

She is Mrs. C. A. Temple, of Little Rock, Ark., who confronted Von Klein as he came out of a cafe on Wabash avenue. Von Klein appeared confused when she greeted him but insisted a mistake had been made.

Mrs. Temple asserts Von Klein under the name of Weaver P. Clark, took her to Milwaukee six months ago, where they were to be married. She says he disappeared with her jewelry, valued at $5,600, on the day set for the wedding.

Von Klein is at liberty on bonds pending the outcome of the legal fight for extradition to Portland, Oregon, where Miss Newcomb says he deserted her.

WORD RECEIVED OF WELLER'S DEATH

Father of Mrs. W. S. Ayers Passed Away at His Home in Dayton on Tuesday.

Word was received in this city this morning by Mrs. C. E. Eckert, of the death in Dayton on last Tuesday of Mr. John H. Weller, of that city, and uncle of Mrs. Eckert and the father of Mrs. William S. Ayers, formerly of this city.

Mr. Weller was very well known in Lima, both from the visits he has made here in the past during the residence of his daughter here, and from the many business visits. He was for many years the superintendent of the D and M. railroad before this became a part of the C. & D. system. Mr. and Mrs. Weller have made their home in Dayton for many years. For the past some time Mr. Weller has not been in the best of health, and was thrown into a serious condition by the recent flood in Dayton. The Weller home was seriously damaged by the water, and many of the goods destroyed. The late Mrs. George Weller, of Dayton, during her lifetime was very well known in this city, as a daughter of Mr. Weller.

The funeral was held in Dayton, the services being held in the cemetery chapel, owing to the demolished condition of the home.

SCRAPPY FEMALES APPLY FIRE BRAND TO ENGLISH TRAIN.

London, April 26.—A militant suffragette "cat-on-squad" set fire to a train standing on a siding of the Southwestern railway at Teddington on the Thames, just outside London early this morning. Little damage was done, however, and no arrests were made. Quantities of oil and other combustibles, suffragette literature and post cards addressed to members of the house of commons were found in the car where the fire started.

ALBERT OF BELGIUM STARTS LARGE EXPO AMID FLORAL BEAUTY

The Nation-wide Industrial Troubles Ended Before Big International Show Starts, but Cost Twenty Million Dollars.

Ghent, Belgium, April 26.—King Albert of the Belgians opened the international exposition here this afternoon. The ceremony took place in the presence of festivities. The King stood amid the tens of thousands of rhododendrons, azaleas and blooming rose trees while he touched the button opening the gates to the general public.

The king was accompanied by Queen Elizabeth and their oldest son, Prince Leopold. The royal party visited every part of the exposition. The streets of the city were set with Venetian masts painted in the national colors.

Daughter of the Condensed Milk Manufacturer is Believed to be With Two Women in a Back Bay Hotel.

Boston, Mass., April 26.—C. C. Kyle, who claims to represent Mr. Borden announced this afternoon that Miss Borden had been found.

Kyle said that Miss Borden was a nervous wreck and was now in the care of friends. One of the women who is alleged to have been with the girl, he said, had left the city.

Kyle said that Miss Borden was found at 1:40 o'clock this afternoon by a detective at a private residence in the Back Bay.

Girls who are said to have been traveling with her. According to Kyle, a woman who made the fourth member of the party, had left the girls some time before.

Miss Borden was taken by her father to the home of friends of his.

Mr. Borden, it was said by legal proceedings that he might have contemplated. He was in doubt whether he would return to New York tonight or tomorrow. This depends largely on what was said upon the condition of his daughter.

Boston, Mass., April 26.—The 17-year-old daughter of the New York millionaire, was transferred to this city today, following information that the girl with two women companions had been located at a Back Bay hotel.

Miss Borden's father, Gill Borden, arrived from New York at 7 o'clock this morning and went at once to the Essex hotel where he registered as "G. Borden, Los Angeles." A few minutes later he left the hotel in the company of two detectives. For the next few hours the movements of the party were secret but it was intimated at the hotel that they had gone for a conference with the missing girl and her friends.

It was stated that the supposed whereabouts had been made known through private sources and not by the detectives who were engaged by Mr. Borden a day or two after she disappeared from a sanitarium at Princeton, N. J., last Wednesday. A number of Mr. Borden's party said:

"We have learned that Miss Borden is not at the Vendome as first reports had it but we have reason to believe that she is in this vicinity. Mr. Borden has now gone out to keep an appointment the nature of which I cannot disclose. I expect that he will return late this afternoon. More than this I cannot say at this time. Mr. Borden is hopeful and I believe he has good reason to believe that he will soon be in the company of his daughter."

Mr. Borden had intended to go to Baltimore today to see his mother who is seriously ill. His plans were changed suddenly.

Twenty Million Loss.

Brussels, Belgium, April 26.—Competent economists reckoning the money loss caused by the recent strike for equal suffrage at $20,000,000. This the socialist leaders declare has been well lost if the country has thereby won equal suffrage. The strike ended in most of the industrial towns of the province today. A good many miners still refused to descend the coal pits but it is believed that by Monday even these insurgents against the orders of the national socialist congress will obey.

THE WEATHER.

Columbus, O., April 26.—Forecast for Ohio:Showers this afternoon and in east portion tonight; cooler in eastern portion. Sunday probably fair.Again the democratic party has demonstrated that a promise made
by it and its candidates will be kept.
All the party's pre-election pledges
have been converted into ante-election accomplishments.No one heard a cry that "the credit of the state is being imperiled" from the great mass of progressive electors who won the victory at the polls in 1912. It is quite certain that that eminently unsuccessful
candidate for governor—Warren G.
Harding—who originated the cry was not on the winning side.A substantial increase to the state treasury surplus is assured in the next two years. At the orders of Governor Cox, watchful eyes were kept upon the revenues while the general assembly was appropriating money, and the amount of expenditures was kept within the income.
Figures announced by the chairman of the house finance committee show that the appropriations for the coming two years from the general revenue fund aggregated $29,070,- 125.64, or an average of $10,033,- 687.82 per year. During the year ending November 15, 1912, the income of the general revenue fund was $11,254,894.23, so that if there is no increase there will be a handsome addition to the treasury surplus. But from the state treasurer's office comes the information that the income the present year will be augmented $500,000.BOUQUETS FROM "WET" AND
"DRY" LEADERS.After commenting favorably on the new liquor license bill, the leaders of the contending factions that engaged in the struggle that marked the enactment of this measure handed the following compliments to Governor Cox.By A. J. Frelburg, Counsel for the Liberal Interests of Ohio:"I consider the Greenlund bill the most complete and modern license
law in the United States. Of course, it is not perfect, but it contains the best that is to be found in the law of other states and eliminates much that has been found to be ineffective." Governor Cox is entitled to lasting credit for the passage of the bill
for it was he who brought the warring sides together and directed the work of drafting the bill. Senator Greenlund has been untiring in his labors and in his study to make the bill as nearly perfect as may be.By Wayne B. Wheeler, Superintendent of Ohio Anti-Saloon League:"The governor has great faith in the license system as the best method for controlling the liquor traffic in wet territory, and worked consistently for the law. In the last hours of the conference session he has aided in keeping certain regulations in the bill which might have been defeated in the senate. The governor has the rare faculty of lining up more representatives and senators for a bill in which he is interested than any one with whom I ever come in contact. This is demonstrated from the fact that he has been able to put through a legislative program of more than 50 bills in less than four months. During the fight on the license bill the governor's public and private offices were open at all times to the preachers as well as to the brewer; to the anti-saloon workers and also to the lobby for the liberal interests."A checking up of the measures enacted discloses that the criticism
which was directed at the general assembly was based upon bills introduced and not bills passed. True there were many freak measures introduced; and each time such a bill
was put into the legislative hopper, criticisms were made of the frivolity or poor judgment of the sponsors. For instance, one man in the capital city was heard to question the ability of the democratic majority to make laws. When asked for a reason, he stated that any general assembly
that would pass such a trifling measure as that for the regulation of women's clothes should be recalled. He was surprised when told that a republican member was the author of that proposed legislation, that it had not been passed and was not given even a moment's serious consideration.Such instances with respect to other bills could be multiplied. Each member has the privilege of introducing bills, and the cries of reverent lament that would follow an attempt to curtail this privilege could extinguish the criticism that follows
the offering of trifling measures.Legislative leaders carefully sifted out the chaff, the faulty bills were either smothered or killed in one of the houses, and those who performed this task are certain that time will demonstrate that the calibre of the work of the eightieth general assembly is superior to that of any other law-making body that ever
sat in Ohio.THE VACATION SEASON AND SANITATION AT RESORTS.The approach of the vacation season makes it desirable to note again
the necessity for paying attention to sanitary conditions in camps or resorts. Not all resorts where one may spend a vacation are health resorts. Indeed, many of them are just the opposite, and some are centers from which ill health originates.
Typhoid is the index of the sanitary status of rural health resorts. While investigation is difficult on account of the lack of adequate supervision of so-called health resorts by public authorities, yet it behooves the seeker after health or recreation to pay some attention to this matter.Many health resorts include in their literature statements as to sanitary conditions which afford at least one means of forming an opinion as to the desirability of patronizing such resorts. The health departments of some states provide for the systematic inspection of summer resorts with regard to sanitation.
New York for the past six years has systematically inspected the summer resorts of that state, of which there are many, and these reports should prove valuable to persons contemplating going to such places in that state.Michigan is another state containing a large number of resorts, which likewise looks after these places places with unquestionable water-supply, and to adopt proper camp arrangements as to the disposal of waste, prevention of breeding of flies,
proper protection from mosquitoes,
etc. Typhoid, according to the Journal of the American Medical Association, is really a rural disease
with its greatest incidence shortly
following the height of the vacation season, and much of it may be traced to bad sanitation at vacation resorts.The report for 1912 of the New York state board of health shows that in that state the occurrence of typhoid in country and city was in the proportion of 12.8 in the former
to 14.5 in the latter per hundred thousand of population. deducting the number of cases as a result of infection would clearly indicate that the incidence of typhoid was apparently of a lesser origin in the country. Taking this disease as the index,
the necessity for care in selecting a place
to spend the summer vacation is apparent.Drive Sick Headache Away.

nervousness for ten years, and had such organic pains that sometimes I would lie in bed four days at a time, could not eat or sleep and did not want anyone to talk to me or bother me at all. Some-

ABOUT TO ORGANIZEProf. Joseph DuPere, who has re-

the organization of an orchestra at the Y. M. C. A. In past years there have been some very successful or-

have been carried along on the lines of the one now contemplated. It is the intention of Prof. DuPere to take all who want to get into the orchestra and to train them from the very beginning and drill them up to the standard of orchestral work. Membership in the Y. M. C. A. will not be necessary and any one who may have any ambition to play
may enter Prof. DuPere's orchestra.
The orchestra, which has been pro-

one who may have the opportunity of his leadership will be fortunate.

PROVE ACCEPTABLEAlthough Some of the Work Done Will Not Appeal to All.Columbus, O., April 26.—With a few finishing touches to be put on
by the general assembly on Monday,
the date fixed for the sine die adjournment, the record of the legislature will have been made up. Generally speaking the record is good and is one which will commend itself to the people of the state, but there are exceptions to the rule of good legislation, and in these instances the Assembly became Socialist or ultra progressive, and wrote into measures provisions for which there was no demand, and which may mean in the end, that a few
few laws may be submitted to a referendum vote of the people
for their approval or disapproval.Measure Generally Condemned.
One measure that is sure to be submitted to other people for a referendum vote, and one which is generally condemned is the Mills bill which removes the limitations of the Longworth law on bond issues.
The Mills bill provides that bonds
may be issued in unlimited amounts
for the purchase of public utilities,
and the people are given no voice
in the matter.The Longworth act was passed
many years ago to save Ohio municipalities from actual bankruptcy,
and to which they were fast headed,
and now comes along Mr. Mills with his bill, which restores the old order of things, only makes them worse.Other Measures to Go Before the People.It is stated upon good authority that the Green Compulsory Compensation act, the Industrial Commission bill, the Agricultural Commission bill, the bill abolishing the office of the state dairy and food commissioner as an elective office,
the one restoring to the citizens of Adams county the right to vote, all passed by the legislature, will be submitted to a vote of the people,
a referendum vote now being in circulation.The assembly failed to act upon two measures initiated by the people. One was the home rule and the other providing for the regulation of newspapers. It is said that these measures will be carried to the people. In addition there will be the proposed amendments to the constitution providing for the short ballot
by making the governor and lieutenant governor, the only elective state officers, that authorizing the appointment of county and township officers, that making judges eligible to hold certain offices and the one by Senator Mooney exempting state, county, township, schools and municipal bonds from taxation. These bonds were non-taxable until the Bigelow constitutional convention came along and submitted an amendment making them taxable, a proposition that the people of the state foolishly approved. Since then, it has been impossible to sell bonds of any kind or description for whatever purpose issued. Bonds offered for sale in many counties of Ohio since January 1, this year, have gone begging for bidders. It was the non-taxable feature that made them attractive, but with the Bigelow touch they lost
that charm.

Franchise Rights.

The assembly killed the Bigelow bill revoking the franchises of the Cincinnati Traction Company, under which stocks and bonds had been issued, and purchased by men and women in perfect good faith.
Attorney General Hogan said in an opinion that this could not be done,
for the reason that it was beyond
the power of the general assembly to enact laws that would impair contracts, and General Hogan has been shown since he has been in office that he knows something about the constitution and constitutional law.
As a matter of fact he has repeatedly admitted that he voted for but few of the amendments submitted by the convention a year ago and stood between the people and the assembly on many dangerous propositions, and in some future letter
we will give a complete list of the measures which he prevented from being enacted into law. It is proper that he should receive full credit for the great service he rendered the people in this regard during the session of the legislature.

Ridicules Short Ballot.

General Hogan ridicules the proposition for a short ballot, making the governor and lieutenant governor the only elective state officers.
Hogan is on his second term, so that it is nothing new to him. One of the arguments advanced in favor of the proposition was that the people did not know the candidates for office
and were going to blind, anyhow.
This amendment takes from the people the right to choose their own officers, while the new constitution confers upon them the graver responsibility of originating and enacting complicated laws.

Six Program Put Through.

The 56 Cox measures were put through. The most of them are meritorious, and the fact that the governor has been successful shows that the governor and the assembly
have been working together in complete harmony in an effort to give the people good, wholesome legislation. The governor ought to have made it one more and then he would have had as many different varieties as are claimed by men.Among the big ones are the agricultural commission bill, the industrial commission measure, the green compensation act, the goodroads bill, a revision of the tax laws, that abolishing the office of state dairy and food commissioner
as an elective office, the coal screen commission, the rural credits commission, the liquor license law, and state civil service commission yet to be enacted into law. The Hite bill for good roads provides for a levy
of one-half mill on all taxable property which it is estimated will raise $3,500,000 a year. It continues for ten years.Investigation of Rural Credits.
On Saturday of this week Mr.
Brown, of Union and Mr.
Brown, of Ashland counties will sail from New York for Paris, where they will meet former Governor Myron T. Herrick, the three having been appointed by Governor Cox under the provisions of S. B. 78 by Mr. Holden, to investigate the subject of rural credits and other matters in direct connection with farming interests in foreign countries.
The commission is to report its findings to the first regular or special meeting of the legislature.Taxation Measures.
While the Warnes taxation bill is pending in conference committee,
there is no doubt that the difference between the two houses will be agreed upon and the bill passed.
Under the provisions of this bill the governor appoints a deputy state tax commissioner for each county and
these in turn as many deputy assessors in the county as is necessary, which means the abolishment of the old form of electing township assessors. Under this act the board of review for municipalities are appointed as well as the privilege of appealing before the county commissioners to enter complaint regarding tax-valuation and instead there is created a board of complaint in each county. This board is appointed by the governor and the tax commissioner. It recreates the present tax commission. FRANKLIN.

posts on the German frontier have been provided with powerful searchlights that sweep the heavens at irregular intervals throughout the night on the lookout for alien dirigibles. This is the latest development in the watchfulness with which the French are guarding the German line, especially since the landing of the Zeppelin at Lunenburg a week or so ago.To test the vigilance of the lookout, French airships cruise unannounced along the 242-mile border and woe to the luckless picket who fails to detect their presence. All roads leading near the frontier are guarded as never before. The wayfarer near the German line encounters frequent patrols who observe sharply but do not challenge.
Among officers of the French army
a favorite topic for discussion and concern is the possible start of two-ty-four hours the Germans might get in the case of war. The fate of the French nation, they say, might depend upon the prompt intelligence of a sergeant's patrol.The wires leading from the frontier to Paris were alive with the alarm when the Zeppelin crossed the border and descended at Lunenburg.
Intelligence officers at the Nancy headquarters received from watchers along the frontier four telephone calls telling of the passage of the aircraft. The posts on all that part of the line were astir with alarm and doubt a thousand field glasses swept the haze and fog of the heavens for a glimpse of the unwelcome visitor.At Paris, the War Ministry was promptly notified by telephone. The French air cavalry, especially the aeroplanists at Nancy, hurried to their hangars and remained there in momentary readiness. A state wing

then the French War Ministry has not relaxed its vigilance, rather it has been increased.A man stung by a bee the other day has thus discovered an unusual cure for catarrhal ophthalmia, and has brought his case to the attention of Dr. Tanawaki. The doctor's patient was suffering from double catarrhal ophthalmia that had resisted all orthodox treatments. He was stung by a bee on his left eyelid.
When he woke up the next morning,
he found that the light was no longer painful to his eye and that the discharge had ceased. The delighted patient captured another bee and had it sting him on the other eye.
The next morning it was cured.The beauty of the rose has been enhanced greatly by a new soil treatment recently discovered in an odd manner. When the first excavations were made for the Paris subway a gardener carted away a few loads of the clay dumpings. He tried roses on the soil thus procured, and to his amazement they grew finer than in the highly prized clays. Since then there has been a great demand
from rose-growers for subway clay.
The roses grown on this soil have been dubbed "subway roses." They have extraordinarily vivid colors and exquisite odor and are taking all prizes at the spring horticultural shows where they have been allotted a section to themselves.M. Goby, a French scientist has devised an apparatus for the application of the X-ray to microscopic work which is expected to have a very important bearing on the study of the smaller organisms. Many of these small organisms, because of their capacity have resisted all attempts to obtain any accurate knowledge of their functions.
To examine such an object properly with a microscope it must be sufficiently transparent to permit the passage of light through it. Exceedingly fine sections are taken of this being done, but there are many other organizations too small to cutNewbro's Herpicide Saves Worry,

NEW MOTOR AMBULANCE ARRIVES IN THE CITY

ECKERT & SON ADD A MODERN VEHICLE
TO EQUIPMENT.

New Machine is Model of Convenience and Perfect Comfort.

EQUIPMENT WITHIN IS MOST COMPLETE

Walls Exterior Presents a Most Perfect Appearance.

New Car Will Go Into Service Beginning Next Monday.

A new ambulance, an automobile ambulance, with all of the very latest equipment, and capable of doing any kind of work that a first aid car is required to do, or anything that such a machine should be asked to do has been installed as a part of the regular equipment of the Charles E. Eckert and Son Undertaking establishment. Beautiful in line and finish, with every detail planned for the greatest comfort of the patient and the convenience of the doctor, the latest of Lima's hurry-up buggies is a perfect specimen of careful workmanship. The ever increasing size of the city of Lima, has widely spreading radius of territory which makes demands upon the Lima invalid cars, and the growing capacity as well as popularity of the Lima hospital, had in the recent past made too great a demand upon the horse drawn vehicles. The distance of many of the shops where serious accidents at times happen, and the demand for immediate care in emergency cases, made the acquisition of a motor ambulance and invalid car imperative. There was to most appearances no other adequate method of dealing with the proposition, of meeting the requirements of the trade, and of showing the requisite disposition to provide for the public with the best and latest.

The result of these hypotheses was the purchase of the Peerless Motor ambulance and invalid car by the firm of Charles E. Eckert and Son, one of the leaders in the city in this line of work. In the middle of last December the order was placed with the Peerless Motor Car Company, of Cleveland, for the new car to be built up along special lines, and to be arranged for the most perfect kind of service. The work, necessarily slow of progress on account of its particular points and its precise requirements, was given all the time needed, and today

COURT HOUSE NEWS

After hearing the two cases of Thomas D. McLaughlin and Peter M. Hulsman, one against Charles W. Woods and the other against John W. Crooks, leave was given the defendants by Judge Klinger to file further affidavits in support of motions to quash the petitions.

Taking of testimony by Special Master Walter Scott was completed yesterday evening in the receivership case of W. H. Clarke against James L. Heath and M. A. Baker. Three days was required for the taking of the testimony. The cause involves differences between the managers of the real estate business formerly operated by the parties. Arguments in the case will be made next week.

On the grounds of gross neglect, Julia Ruth Copeland, has been granted a divorce from Don Francis Copeland. She was restored to her maiden name and ordered to pay the costs.

Separation, alimony and restoration of her maiden name, Daisy M. Floyd, are asked by Daisy M. Campbell, who yesterday filed proceedings against her husband, G. W. Campbell. Failure to provide constitutes the reason for the action.

Suit was filed in common pleas court this afternoon by R. L. Fletcher against P. M. and Ada Driver, who alleges that through the breaking of a contract which he had with the defendants, he suffered a loss of $422.25. Fletcher sues for recovery of this amount.

The plaintiff states that he entered into an agreement with the defendants whereby he was to construct a house at a cost of $2740 and that after he had started work on the structure the defendants refused to allow him to proceed. He claims he purchased supplies totaling the amount asked for.

He asks that sale of a lot owned by the defendants in the Lakewood addition be ordered to pay the alleged damages.

Cosily admitting that it was his fourth matrimonial venture, James W. Sullivan, 35, farmer, residing near Kansas City this afternoon, took out a license to marry Mrs. Alice N. Swartz, 30. It was Mrs. Swartz' second attempt.

With the license filed with the exception of three lines, Francis B. Pommert, 21 and Miss Esther D. Miller, 13, of Port Wayne, were refused this afternoon on the grounds that the girl was not a resident of Allen county. The couple returned to Ft. Wayne where they will attempt to secure a license there.

Other licenses were issued today to Charles E. Workman, 7, and Maude J. Parry, both of Spencerville; Alfred W. Kohler, 24, and Miss Olga Miller, 22, both of Bluffton.

RAIN PUT HAMPER ON

Willys-Gramm Outing Today Postponed Until Next Saturday.

TRIP IS CALLED OFF AT ELEVENTH HOUR

Program as Arranged Will be Carried Out at a Later Date.

The fate of the weather man, pre-arranging rain for this big day with the two Willys factories and thereby insulating any possibility of a baseball game in Toledo, as well as making any kind of an outing more of a bore and a burr than a pleasure, forced a postponement of the big celebration today. The crowds had begun to gather at the Memorial hall at 9:15 this morning, when a telegram was received from the heads of the Willys-Overland company, at Toledo, announcing the postponement of the festivities until next Saturday. The program as it had been arranged for today, in all of the details will be carried out at that time.

This change in the arrangements though coming as somewhat of a disappointment to the hundreds from Lima, as well as those in Toledo who have been planning on having a fine day today, will give an opportunity for the fine weather of Saturday to provide additional enjoyment.

The trip through the factories of the Willys-Overland Company could have been nicely enjoyed today, the weather being no factor in this part of the entertainment. However, this was not the sole thing on the program, and would scarcely supply sufficient entertainment for the entire time in Toledo.

Postponing this trip until a week later will mean very great additional expense. Willys companies, as all of the arrangements had been made for it, and everything was in readiness, it was not until the last minute that word was received not to come. At the local plant alone 800 lunches had been provided for the crowd from here, all put up in sanitary boxes and finished to the king's taste. These will in a large part be a total waste, and others will have to be supplied for next week.

However, Mr. Willys is intent upon giving a first class outing to all of his employees, and would not stand for having their pleasures marred by rainy weather, though an added expense be caused by postponement. The following is the program that has been arranged for the day's entertainment:

NEWS OF POLICE COURT

A conviction a minute was the record attained by Mayor Shook at this morning's session of police court. Ready pleas of guilt and a desire to get the day's business over in order to attend the Gramm outing facilitated the work of justice.

The usual fine of a dollar and costs for train riders was meted out to John Wilson who was plucked from a passing train by a Pennsylvania officer yesterday.

Mayor Shook was undecided about the name given by the next victim.

"Willie Bubbles, eh?" He meditated.

"Yes," admitted Bubbles.

"Willie, you are charged with effervescence. What's your name got to do with it?"

A dollar and costs for Bubbles.

Charged with emitting a yell that sounded like a mixture of a war cry of a Comanche and the plaintive call of the dove, Paul Severs, 17, next was arraigned. He promised not to do it again.

"Open docket and the next time you go to the probate court."

Luke McLuke, not the Queen City Sage, was given the usual one dollar for drunkenness.

Pleas that they didn't know a license was necessary brought an acquittal for John and Hugh Chamberlain, charged with peddling. Both men bought licenses and were released.

Heartless Thief.

A new method in the old for thieves to escape pursuit was demonstrated to the police late yesterday when Thomas Mills, 35, who boards at the Elm Brethren hall on boarding house at 400 Railroad street appeared at the police station with a tale of robbery, clothed in a suit belonging to a fellow boarder.

According to the story told by Mills, a sneak thief entered this room at the boarding house and

$2200 Worth for $1585

That's the Henderson story. Comparison—part for part—proves it. Investigate and see how much you get and satisfy yourself.

The Henderson car tallies with your ideal in every point. Yet priced much below what you would expect and would be willing to pay.

No other car gives what the Henderson gives for less than $2200. Some $5000 cars have Henderson features.

There is nothing experimental about the Henderson. Every part is a tried and proved unit. The chassis is standard construction—accurately balanced—non-vibrating.

Some Luxury Features

The left-hand drive with single lever control of the Henderson is a practical improvement. Just as simple as an electric. Many of the higher priced cars are adopting it.

Electric self-starter and electric lighting device are the Ward-Leonard system, same as used on U. S. battleships. Both are part of the Henderson equipment—no extra cost.

Cowl Dash

The large, graceful cowl dash, with gasoline tank underneath, is a foreign conception. It insures positive flow of gasoline on the steepest grades—and permits using a cheaper grade fuel.

The transmission and rear axle are integral of the chassis system, same as Packard, Stutz and Stutz.

manager has prepared an entire new program. Fully aware of the unanimous approval of past performances he declares that this year's display is the best effort of his career.

The opening spectacle is located at Ormond Beach, Florida, on the eve of the great automobile races, and the program of "Minstrelsy Past and Present" is given on the lawn and veranda of the hostelry. Playing fountain, waterfalls, the rolling Atlantic, and the bayous are shown with vivid reality, and the illumination of the hotel, summer houses, pagodas and arbors, enhances a scene that includes the cream of song, story and fun. Headed by Al. G. Field himself, the company includes singers, dancers and comedians whose reputation in the world of amusement stand second to none.

THE CLOSING SEASON.

There is but one attraction at the Faurot next week, popular Al. G. Field and his Minstrels coming in on Wednesday night, and the following week will witness the closing of the regular season. Two splendid attractions will be seen, "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" on Tuesday night and "Blanche Bates" appearing in "The Witness for the Defense" on Friday night.

"The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" is a dramatization of the novel of the same name by John Fox, Jr., and was made by Eugene Walter, author of "Paid in Full," "The Wolf" and "The Eastward Way." It is a mammoth production and has been highly successful in the big cities.

"The Witness for the Defense," in which Charles Frohman will present that distinguished actress, Blanche Bates, is by A. E. W. Mason, an English dramatist and member of parliament, who has given to the stage several masterly plays. Bates has made one of the greatest successes of her career in "The Witness for the Defense" and this, her first appearance in Lima, should bring out our most discriminating playgoers in force.

LYRIC THEATRE.

By request of many patrons Mr. Barrett of the Barrett Players will play "Dorothy Thorne" for the first three days of next week. Mr. Barrett has assigned the play for the first half of the week offering. Miss Anna May will have the sympathetic role of "Dora Thorne" while Mr. Donner will play Ronald Barle, and Mr. Barrett will appear as Ralph Holt.

AT THE ORPHEUM.

After a week of excellent musical comedy the Orpheum goes back to approved vaudeville, the kind that has made the playhouse the popular place of amusement in Lima.

For the first three days of the week, beginning with the usual matinee Monday afternoon, Manager Wheeler offers for the first time in this city the Gardiner-Vincent company in a comedy phantasy

A. PFLUM.

"AT AN AFTERNOON CALL" said a popular society woman, "the subject of woman's health was under discussion, and to my amazement three out of four women in the room, who had happened to call at the same time, had found health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Thousands of women in America owe their health and happiness to the marvelous power of this famous medicine, which is made from roots and herbs, nature's remedy for woman's ills.

Character Not Admired by Women.

Nothing displeases women more than an austere and self-contained character. They see that they have no hold upon it, its dignity awes them, its pride rebels, its preoccupations keep them aloof—Hippolyte A. Taine.

DETERMINES WHO'S BOSS

In Fixing Terms of Operating Ships in the Big Panama Canal.

UNITED STATES OWNS BIG DITCH

Therefore Has Right to Make All Rules, Says Olney.

Washington, April 26.—The United States, as owner of the Panama canal, has the right to fix such terms as it pleases and the neutrality of the waterway applies to its users only and not to the United States.

This was the view expressed today by Richard Olney, former secretary of state, whose speech was read before a meeting of the American Society of International Law.

"It is clear," Mr. Olney's speech continued, "that a nation or a state does not convey away its property or sovereignty except by terms that are clear and susceptible of no other meaning; and that where the meaning can be taken to favor the United States, it is the clear right of the United States to urge that it be held that the words 'all nations' do not mean to include the United States. However, it is not necessary, to rely upon this presumption as the United States is owner and can fix its terms as it pleases."

If the question is submitted to arbitration it should not be submitted to The Hague but to a special tribunal. The Hague would be partial as admittedly all European powers are interested in the outcome.

Another speaker who compared the relative interest of the United States and Great Britain at the various stages of the Panama canal negotiations was Chandler P. Anderson, former counselor of the state department who in effect declared that "the United States is clearly entitled to exempt its own vessels from the payment of tolls or to refund such tolls."

The most pathetic phase of life is a realization of the friends that we never make; the friends that might have been made by just exerting ourselves a little more, says the National Magazine. Who ever contemplated the loss of friends that he might have made by just releasing a little of his self-centered reserve?

We appreciate the person who always greets us at meeting day after day. It is easy, so simple, to spread the halo of happiness about us that we often overlook it and go through the world thinking that every smile and every good impulse we have is not worth while unless bartered away for something in exchange. There life loses its whole value. It is when it comes from within with a worthy motive that happiness is truly ours.

Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, who has just completed a tour which enabled her to visit state federation meetings from Texas eastward as Washington, D. C., including Ohio, says that it has been suggested that a forum, open to both sexes for the discussion of civic affairs that are to be considered later by the woman's clubs, be established. Mrs. Pennybacker thinks that better results are arrived at when men and women counsel together about civic reforms.

The season of June brides is approaching. Already trousseaus are being planned, and girlish eyes are peering critically at the handsome suits displayed in the shop windows. A cream or ivory tinted gown is to be the most popular this season. The stately bride will select a gown of one of the silken fabrics; while the petite girlish bride will choose a robe of lace and chiffon. But whether the gown be of silk or chiffon, it is sure to be draped.

A wedding gown recently imported for a June bride had three trains. The skirt was draped and ended in two points that trailed on the floor about a yard. From the shoulders hung another train which partially covered the other two.

The pinks and blues and yellows that have been used in bridesmaid's frocks during the past years have been superseded by gayer and brighter colors.

The bridesmaid's hat is large because all of the dressy hats for mid-summer wear will be large as the street hats earlier in the season have been small. This will be a welcome change, as large hats are almost always more becoming than small ones.

The last word in Paris and American fashions are said to be summed up in two and three piece costume suits for calling, luncheon, matinee and restaurant wear, of all silk, or silk one-piece dress with wool coat or silk brocade coat and skirt completed with fancy net blouse attached to the skirt. White wool suits in the plain and fancy sponge, wool matelasse, bird's eye, bedford and fancy striped materials are shown, and then there is the wool walking suit, eponge suits, cotton corduroy suits, crepe, voile and florentine embroidered linen suits.

Afternoon and evening mantles and coats of striped and printed chiffon, silk and wool matelasse, faille and brocade silks and satins, in black and beautiful shades, with plain and brocade linings, are the things of supreme delight to the eye of woman.

Sport, motor and semi-dress coats in various models in light and medium weight fabrics, seem to lead, while evening gowns for the opera are shown of satin de sole, faintly patterned chiffons, brocade crepe de chine and metal tulle.

Lace and net gowns for afternoon wear of all-over fillet, combined with renise and cluny lace, or combined with chiffon, silk or panne velvet in delicate shades, are some of the pretty creations, while the morning frocks come in voile and batiste, trotter frocks and coat dresses in white and all shades. Separate skirts are shown of plain and blocked eponge, bedford and embroidered linen. Wool skirts come in the smart new checks, the dressy skirts of black moire and charmeuse, in draped models. Summer blouses and waists button in front, with fancy low collars of pompadour, crepe, printed voile, white net, cream lace and other new effects.

The summer millinery is also expressive of the new color schemes and larger models. New all-white hats and drooping leghorns, veiled in plaited straw or lace, are among the handsome things shown.

Mrs. Ray Rolan of 343 west Spring street, will be hostess for the Clonians, Monday afternoon, entertaining at her home.

Mrs. Kate Thompson of east Elm street, opened her home, Monday afternoon, for the meeting of the Sorosis club. There was no papers and the entire afternoon was devoted to social chat and needlework. A delicious luncheon was served the club and Mrs. J. A. Hall and her guest, Mrs. Tiffany of Dayton, who was privileged to enjoy the meeting with the members. The final meeting of the season will be held with Mrs. E. D. Wallace, of 723 west Wayne street, Monday afternoon, and members are requested to be present.

The meeting of the Chautauquan club, scheduled for Monday evening with Mrs. William Wilson, was dispensed with and this week Mrs. Wilson will be hostess, opening her home Monday evening. Mrs. Wilson resides at 718 Greenlawn avenue.

Miss Jessie Atchison of 514 west North street, will have the Etude club with her the coming week, the regular meeting day being Tuesday afternoon. A program of American music will be given, with Mrs. Waldo Berryman as leader.

Mr. and Mrs. George McHaffey complimented Mr. and Mrs. George Chisholm of New York City, with an informal dinner Tuesday evening, at which a small number of friends were seated. While in the city, Mr. and Mrs. Chisholm are being shown much social attention.

"All the world loves a lover" and brides take precedence over all else. So then the most interesting event of the week just past was the marriage on Tuesday of Miss June Justus, and Rev. Samuel R. Dunham, of Spencerville, celebrated with simplicity and an utter lack of ostentation, so in keeping with the tastes of both bride and bridegroom. Mr. James O. Ohler's lecture on Tuesday evening attracted many of the men and women prominent in social life, to the city library and afterward they went to the Lima High school auditorium to attend the meeting, which had for its purpose the object of making greater the city of Lima.

The Junior class play, "The Rose O' Plymouth Town" on Thursday and Friday evening attracted the younger society set and there was the usual small gathering of club women, interested in kindred subjects or to play bridge.

Meanwhile society contemplates itself with the eager anticipation of delightful spring of golf and tennis and the diversions which discard the indoor slavery of the winter-time. Anything that brings society nearer to the life of out-of-doors, is hailed with delight. As spring approaches the members of the various country club devise ways and means to spend as much time as possible at this delightful spot, away from the noise of the city and the busy hum-drum of the street.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis, of 748 south Main street, are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. A. McCrea and Miss Helen McCrea, of Sandusky, O.

Mrs. Jessie Maple Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Maple, of Kenton, and Clifford Hurst, foreman of the mechanical department of the Republican-Gazette, were married at high noon Wednesday at the residence of the bride's brother, Pearl Maple, of Kenton. Rev. Mr. Bartz, pastor of the Kenton Presbyterian church, officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurst will reside at 1030 west High street.

The election of new officers for the Business Woman's club will be held May 13. At that time the office of president, vice president, corresponding and recording secretary and treasurer, will be filled, as well as seven members of the board of directors named by the club.

The nominating committee selected consists of Miss Julia Lyons, of east Pearl street, Miss Alice Crab, of west High street, and Miss Myrtle Metz, of south Central avenue. Miss Eda M. Ballard, the efficient president of the club ever since it has been inaugurated, will no doubt be re-elected to succeed herself. For very few persons could fill the office

Marked by perfect simplicity according to the wishes of the bride were the marriage vows taken Thursday afternoon by Miss Marie Decker of this city and Mr. Edward Livingston Montgomery, Junior, of New York City.

The ceremony was performed by Reverend Thomas Knox at four o'clock in the Market street Presbyterian church before an altar banked with tropical plants and lilies. The bride was gowned in an afternoon frock of white crepe de chine with which was worn a small white hat. She carried an armful of white lilies loosely held together with trailing asparagus.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer B. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest T. Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. Thornton W. Mitchell with the mother of the bride were the only witnesses to the marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery left at five o'clock over the Pennsylvania on the eleven hour Broadway flyer, which was especially stopped and returned immediately to New York where they will be at the Saint Regis until they take a place in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chisholm have returned to Lima for an indefinite period, after a long sojourn in New York City.

At the April meeting of the Toledo Women's association, the following paper was read by Mrs. Robert Morris and published in the Toledo Blade, and is of such genuine worth that the Times-Democrat takes pleasure in reproducing it. It is entitled, "The Milestones of Life."

We are apt to regret as the beginning of a New Year this season, "When proud-pied April dressed in all his trizine bath put the spirit of youth in everything." Now, even more than in days "When rain and wind beat dark December" do we take account of stock, a mental and spiritual inventory.

It is a curious thing though after we have known thirty springs we add all the others with regret. It is as if we ran with eager feet toward all of the first milestones of life, and then turned and walked backward all the rest of the long way, with eyes fixed regrettably upon the road over which we have come.

It is well to analyze our attitude as women toward our certain future. Few of us can say sincerely: "Grow old along with me, The best is yet to be— The end of life for which the first was made!"

If the attitude of the average woman toward life after 25 years indicates her opinion of it, it is disgraceful, loathsome, intolerable. Is it any wonder that artists paint the beauty of youth, novelists tell only the romances of youth, poets seek inspiration from youth, the business and professional worlds demand youth, and the "Woman's Pages" of newspapers and magazines are filled with instructions in the best methods of combating the ravages of Time with the shot and shell of skin foods and hair tonics?

Frightened by Bugaboo? Why all this ado about nothing? Are we frightened by a bugaboo?

When a small boy has a birthday he loudly proclaims: "I'm 6, going on 7!" A schoolgirl exclaims: "Hurrah! I'll be 16 next week!" But who ever heard a woman cry: "Oh, joy! I'll be 45 tomorrow!"

In medieval history the Middle Ages are sometimes called the Dark Ages. Is there any real reason why we should describe the best of life in the same way? Are we so blind that we see only the obvious? The beauty of youth, the romance and strength of it, are obvious, external things. We need artists in story and color to show us subtler things. Most of us see only a fraction of the beauty in which the whole world is bathed. Primitive man was probably blind to the magnificence of the ocean, the serenity of brooding clouds, the recurring mysteries of the dawn. Then came one who had eyes and could see. Do we need someone to point out to us the superior loveliness which added years give to the body, to the mind and soul?

A smooth complexion is beautiful. So is a well bound book of blank leaves. A book with printed message is more beautiful. An immature mind is beautiful, but only because of the possibility of development. An untested soul has the beauty of innocence, but not that of virtue.

The character of youth has the beauty of promise. The character of age that of fine achievement.

We all aver that we see the beauty of weathered shingles, and ruined castles, and old furniture, bare trees and November skies. Is there no beauty in wrinkled faces and shrunken hands?

The features of youth are lovely, but the features of age are lovely— with a difference. The eyes of 16 are like a window open upon which the sunlight falls, dazzling bright, but the illumination is from the outside.

The eyes of 70 are like a window at night, with a lamp behind it— softly glowing—the illumination is from within. To be young is to grow, to change, to serve, to nurse enthusiasms. To be old is to cease to grow, to change, to learn, to do. You and I know as many old women of 25 as of 75.

An Uncomplimentary Remark.

The most uncomplimentary remark you can make to a woman is "Grandmother." If age were merely a matter of years, there were younger

Denault's Gamin, Champion French Bulldog, and His Friend

Gamin, officially Denault's Gamin, is the champion French bulldog of the United States. That was decided at the closing show of the French Bulldog Club of America held in the Hotel Astor, New York. He was such a charming little creature that when one of the photographers insisted on getting his picture Mrs. F. D. Willett, one of his dear friends, refused permission unless she could hold the dog in the correct pose for the photographer.

The best French bulldogs in the United States were on exhibition at his show for several days. They had come from all parts of the country. Gamin, the winner over all, is worth so much money that his owner did not care to put a price on him.

mark you can make to a woman whom you have not met for years, is "Why, you haven't changed at all!" If you speak truth, she was dying the last time you saw her and her friends forgot to bury her. While we live we must change. It is the law of life. Every change which is the result of growth has for its ultimate product beauty. External signs of added years cause needless heartaches and regrets. There is nothing so hideous in the whole realm of nature as the falsely so-called "well preserved old person."

I say falsely called well preserved because preserves are extraordinarily sweet. Such a person might be called "well pickled," but well preserved, never! How can she be sweet and wage that unending battle against external which fills her days and nights with fear? Fear of laughing, because it makes wrinkles about the eyes. (But such enduring lines!) Fear of thinking, which makes wrinkles between the brows. (But such interesting wrinkles!) Fear of serving, which dissipates the least valuable of all our forces—physical strength.

Isn't it queer that we should spend our thought to prevent and conceal these trifles while we shamelessly, indecently expose unmistakable signs of mental and spiritual neglect and decay? No woman admits that her neck and face and hands and joints are showing signs of age. But women will confess unblushingly that they have permitted their minds to grow old. It is a common thing to hear a woman say: "I just can't remember anything." "I can't think," says another, "or I can't concentrate."

When a woman confesses to these horrors—and we are perpetually sad because so many do confess them—we should reply: "Why, what an old, old woman you are, confessing to the loss of faculties in middle age, which should be strong and growing even to your sunset day!"

Others confess to spiritual degeneration and decay. It's a common thing to hear a woman say: "I just can't forgive So and So!" or "I just can't work on a committee with Mrs. Somebody Else!" or "I just hate Mrs. Neighbor!" What a lot of shriveled up, miserable little souls are rattling around in our well-massaged bodies!

Why all this fuss about the appearance of a little gray matter on the outside of our heads? What's the condition of the gray matter on the inside? Is the tonic needed there?

Why All This Ado? Why all this ado about wrinkles on the face? The more important question is: Are we adding any wrinkles to the convolutions in our brain?

I know a woman of twenty-seven. She has been an old woman since she was fifteen. For her all the wisdom of all the ages is condensed into the intonation. "Never trump your horns at your own age." She has condensed a share of the milk of human kindness into the cold cream which she rubs into imaginary lines in her neck. All the flowers she will ever watch a-grow-ing are the curious botanical specimens manufactured by her needle. All the enthusiasm of her days is spent in numbering her hatreds—of the women who dare to buy hats like hers, or wear gowns like hers! Multiply the added ages of all the mummies in all art museums by seventy times seven, and the product will not equal a fraction of her age! And yet she was heard to complain that once in church she had to sit by "such a horrid old woman, you know! It quite made me shiver." Let us hone the Recording Angel has a sense of humor. He needs it in his business.

We have a great many young grandmothers among our acquaintances. If age were merely a matter of years, there were younger

A short spin about town followed the luncheon.

"Not in a long time has a marriage been solemnized in Lima which drew forth the real heart interest as that of Miss June Justus and Rev. Samuel R. Dunham, celebrated Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, in Trinity Methodist Episcopal church. The couple were attended by Miss Florence Dunham, of Delaware, sister of the bridegroom, and Rev. Ernest Tittle, of Dayton, a college mate of the bridegroom at Drew Theological seminary in Madison, New Jersey. The four entered the church and occupied the front seat until Rev. Clinton Richmond had finished his program of organ music.

They then stepped to a place in front of the altar, where the marriage ceremony was read by the bridegroom's father, Rev. E. S. Dunham, of Delaware, Ohio. When he had finished the ceremony, received the vows and pronounced the benediction in marriage, he embraced and in a fatherly way, kissed his son. The prayer in the ceremony was made by Rev. M. M. Flegley, superintendent of the church, over which the bridegroom presides in Spencerville, and was a gem of beauty, emphasizing as it did, the embarking of this couple upon the sea of matrimony and establishment of a Christian home. Many were the tears in the audience when the impressive ceremony had been finished.

Rev. M. B. Fuller, the bride's pastor, added a loving tribute to the solemnity of the occasion.

Rev. Mr. Dunham and his bride enjoyed a brief wedding visit and are now at home to their friends in Spencerville, residing in a delightful little home, furnished beautifully, in advance for their reception. Rev. Mr. Dunham will conduct the usual services in the Methodist church in Spencerville tomorrow. His bride will attend, ever ready to help him in the great cause which they have before them.

No greater tribute to the popularity of both can be made than to say that while it was their wish that the details of the wedding be carried out in plain simplicity, friends secured entrance to the church and decorated it artistically with palms and white lilies.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Justus, of 355 south Pierce street, and Rev. Mr. Dunham was stationed here as pastor of the Second Street Methodist church up to the close of the last conference year.

No cards were issued for the wedding, the bride and bridegroom asking their friends very informally to be present at the hour of the ceremony.

Mrs. Edward Stump, of Metcalf and Haller streets, opened her pretty home, Tuesday afternoon, for the entertainment of the Calanthian Euchre club. Mrs. W. L. McClain, Mrs. James Pittila, Mrs. C. C. Cowles, Mrs. Aldine Hilly, Mrs. William H. Howell and Mrs. Clifford Thomas, were invited as guests to play with the members. Mrs. R. L. Morris was successful among the club and Mrs. Hilly, among the guests. Each was rewarded for their efforts in being given a hand-painted plate, the handwork of the hostess, who is skilled in the art of China painting.

The small card tables were used for serving the delicious two-course luncheon, consisting of chicken patties, potato salad, gelatine, ice cream, cake and coffee. The luncheon was made more enjoyable, being served in rooms made pleasant by decorations of ferns, palms and the loveliest of house-grown plants, of which Mrs. Stump is the proud possessor. The final meeting of the season, which will include the election of new officers, will be held, in a fortnight, with Mrs. R. C. Treasurer, of north Washington street.

Mrs. S. F. Mason of south McDonald street, entertained the Social and Literary club, Thursday afternoon, opening her pleasant home. Fifteen members responded to roll call and Mr. Wilson had as

In the contest submitted, Mrs. Lutz won the club prize and Mrs. Frank Mason, the guest prize. Mrs. S. W. Burton, Mrs. Howard Beach and Mrs. Frank Mason assisted the hostess in serving a delicious two-course luncheon. Only a few more meetings yet remain this season. The next will be held in a fortnight, with Mrs. William Kinser of 721 1/2 south Pine street.

The final meeting of the Shakespeare club for the year, will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the public library, when new officers will be elected and the work for the coming year will be planned. Members are requested to be in attendance.

The regular meeting of the University club was held Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Justus of south Flores street, as a special compliment to Miss June Justus, who has been secretary of the club the past year, and to her fiancé, Rev. Samuel R. Dunham, both of whom were members of the club, which consists only of graduates from the Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware. Miss Justus received her guests in a friendly manner, a profusion of good wishes being showered upon her, by the 49 members in attendance.

Dr. George A. Hall, president of the club, was in the chair and the regular program was carried out. Miss Ruth Hasden sang and Misses Nellie Bigley and Christine Flegley gave a piano duet. Mrs. I. L. Shaffer also favored the club with a musical number.

Rev. M. C. Howey of Epworth Methodist church administered the advice to the bridegroom, from a minister's standpoint, in a clever manner. Mrs. M. B. Fuller, wife of Trinity's pastor, administered the advice to Miss Justus, also from the standpoint of being a minister's help-mate. Mrs. Fuller began by saying: "I have talked to this girl upon more than one occasion and I am now going to give her solid advice" in the meantime placing her arm lovingly about Miss Justus.

Dr. W. E. Hoyer, on behalf of the men of the club, presented Rev. Mr. Dunham an oak leather rocker and the ladies of the club gave Miss Justus a dozen solid silver spoons.

In a wedding guest book, which had previously been presented to Miss Justus, by Mrs. George Hall, the names of those in attendance, the date and the happy events of the evening, were engrossed.

Ice cream, cake, in two kinds, and coffee was served. Guests were Rev. E. S. Dunham and his daughter, Miss Florence Dunham, of Delaware, and Miss Weesie Baker.

A party of 30 maids and matrons and gallant men, came from Kalida, Tuesday evening, forming a jolly theatre party to witness "The Woman" at the Faurot. The Ideal club will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Herbert U. Bussert, of Charles street.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Spyker, of north Metcalf street, are entertaining their daughter, Mrs. Huston Spyker, of Decatur, Ill. Mrs. Spyker is en route to her home, after having been in the Good Samaritan hospital in Cincinnati. She is getting along nicely and will soon leave for her home.

Mrs. I. S. Matter, of west Spring street, entertained at a family dinner Thursday evening, at her home, complimentary to Mrs. Thomas Whitbread, of New York City, a niece of the hostess. The long table was laid in the dining room and bore lovely decorations of white tulle.

Mrs. J. R. Melly has invited in a number of the girlhood friends of Mrs. Thomas Whitbread, of New York City, for tea, Tuesday afternoon, at her pretty home at 126 south Jameson avenue.

A delight to the eye and appealing to the heart is the Children's choir of the First Baptist church, whose members every Sunday morning are found in their places, ready to contribute their part to the work of the church. They are a great help to the pastor, who is much delighted with the efforts of Mrs. J. R. Melly, who trained the children and who is in charge as directress.

The choir consists of 50 voices, both young boys and girls being included, from the eight-year-olds up to those of thirteen. They wear the vestments and sing from the processional, sung as they march into the church and take their place in the west balcony of the church, they also sing an anthem, supplementing the work of the regular choir. Mrs. J. K. Bannister and Mrs. A. O. Hotchkiss also assisted in training the boys and girls. They will be a permanent feature of the morning service at the First Baptist church, throughout the summer.

the longevity of the company and its productions seem manifest.
The Orpheum with its good vaudeville shows, has attracted large audiences, almost as great as in mid-season. But the season is close at hand and if the warm weather should set in permanently, the public mind will readily turn to the outdoor places of amusement and entertainment.

However, before the final curtain is rung down on the present season at the Orpheum, "The Witness for the Defense" and that charming play, "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" laid in the fine southern country, will appear.

When the club season is nearly over and the closing meetings will be the matter of yet a few weeks, when the gatherings are resumed again in October, the meeting of the state federation will be the first thing to be given import. The meeting this year will be held in Chillicothe the middle of October.

Shortly after that time, the annual conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution will convene in Canton.

On account of the Ohio Newspaper Woman's association is separated from the club federation this year, a meeting will be called in the summer at Put-in-Bay, probably for a two or three days session. A feature will be a banquet.

There is a movement on foot and one which generally meets with the approbation of every member, to hold the meeting while the Inter-Lake Yachting association convenes at the Bay, the middle of July. The yachting men's gathering always attracts a large number of newspaper men, called there to report the race, and this would add interest to the banquet, with the men as guests. It has always been customary to have a few men as guests and the honor this year will no doubt, go to the "boys" who write the water sports and cover the river and harbor "beat" when at home and who, while at the Bay, will be following the craft as they dart in and out of the islands, where the best yachting grounds in the country are found.

The executive committee of the association now has the matter in hand. The Ohio Newspaper Woman's association met in Lima some years ago in connection with the federation of clubs, with the banquet at Hotel Norval, and Herbert D. Campbell, Hon. Walter B. Ritchie and Dr. Charles C. Miller, as guests.

Members of the Wimodaughais circle will go to the home of Mrs. Nordquist, 406 Atlantic avenue, for the fortnightly meeting, Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. H. F. Reel, the efficient secretary of the Round Table, will welcome members of the club to her home, Monday afternoon, at 351 east High street.

LIMA HIGH SCHOOL RECEIVES PLANTS.

The Floral Committee of Sacramento, Calif., recently offered to send a California poppy plant and a package of seed to each pupil of the Lima high school who was willing to receive one. A list of pupils so inclined was mailed to the floral committee and the plants have been received in good condition. Some of these plants have roots sufficiently perfect to enable them to continue their growth in Ohio soil under the fostering care of the high school pupils. The California poppy is the state flower of California. A better supply has been promised for next fall, at a time when the flowers are in better condition. This is an effort in the right direction, for in this way an interest in the study of nature will be awakened.

The Rengo Belt Corsets

For Stout and Medium Stout Women in 1913 Models

The Rengo Belt Reducing Corsets are beautiful examples of the scientific reduction of stout and medium figures. No other corsets ever have or ever will have, the wonderful value that is represented in the great strength and wearing qualities of these new 1913 models. By their extra strength, their shapeliness will be retained long after other weaker corsets have stretched and gone to pieces.

The new models introduce abdominal reducing features strikingly simple, successful and comfortable. In addition to the famous Rengo Belt reinforcement over the abdomen, we have added this season special wide elastic webbing, which automatically reduces the excess flesh and gives an upward support that is most comforting to the wearer. This elastic webbing affords perfect freedom and particularly gives comfort in the sitting position.

All models are boned with double watch-spring steel and guaranteed not to rust.

PRESIDENT HURETA CONTROLS LESS THAN ONE-HALF OF MEXICAN TERRITORY

Huerta's Enemies Hold Large Part of Country

(By Edward I. Bell.)
The entire organized opposition to Huerta holds control of 384,790 square miles, or slightly more than half the area of the nation. The population of these revolting sections is 4,200,000 or a little less than one-third of Mexico's total.

Venustiano Carranza was governor of Coahuila under Madero. He has had himself proclaimed provisional president in opposition to Huerta. He is establishing a "Junta" at Washington, D. C., and is said to represent the Madero interests. He is the acknowledged leader of the "Constitutionalist" movement.

The Maytorena revolt in Sonora and Sinaloa is aided by the Yaqui Indians. Governor Maytorena holds Hermosillo, the capital of Sonora, which he has never surrendered to Huerta, and has the resources of the state at his back. He is said to acknowledge Carranza's leadership.

The National line of railway north of Monterey has been torn up by Carranza; it is also cut south of Monterey, and shuts off all northern egress. The international line from Monclova to Eagle Pass, is in Carranza control. The central, for most of the way from Torreon to Chihuahua City also fell into his hands when he captured Jimenez, the Huerta army headquarters for the north. North of Chihuahua City to Ciudad Juarez, opposite El Paso, is also in control of Carranza forces. The Southern Pacific Railway of Mexico runs from the Arizona border south through Sonora, Sinaloa and Tepic for a thousand miles. It is nearly all in the hands of Maytorena forces.
The Southern Mexico line from the city of Puebla to the city of Oaxaca, 238 miles, has been put out of business by Zapata, as has also the Inter-oceanic railway from Mexico City to Vera Cruz, 294 miles.
All of these railways, except the Southern Pacific of Mexico, are parts of the National Railways of Mexico system.
Telegraph wires are down all over northern Mexico. It is still possible to reach Mexico City by cable to Vera Cruz.
In the sections where Huerta's power is recognized the spirit of revolt is gaining headway and bands of brigands are in almost unrestrained operation.

be a large attendance at all of these services. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30.

First Baptist Church.
The Sunday school is held promptly at 9:15 a. m., followed by worship and sermon at 10:30. Young Peoples' meeting at 6:30, followed by the evening preaching service at 7:30. The subject for the morning sermon will be "Christ's Conception of the Soul's Salvation." The Children's chorus choir will assist the other choir at the morning service. In the evening our regular monthly musicale will be held and a fine program will be given. The minister will deliver a sermon upon music, his theme being, "Heaven's Melody in the Heart." On Wednesday evening the prayer meeting of the South Side Baptist church is held at 7:30. The minister of this church will lead on this evening. On Thursday evening the regular prayer and conference service is held at 7:30. The subject will be, "If I were in the other member's place." A most hearty and cordial invitation is extended to all to those services.

South Side Church of Christ.
Frederick C. Lake, minister. Church services at 10:30 and at 7:30. Theme of morning sermon: "True Religion; theme of evening sermon: "The World's Unrecognized Debt to Jesus Christ."

The public is cordially invited to any and all of these services.

MARKETS

New York, April 26.—The tone of the stock market was improved at the opening today and most stocks made small gains. Canadian Pacific with an advance of 1 1/4 was the strong feature. Several stocks which have been conspicuous recent made new low records. Among them were Northwestern, Chesapeake and Ohio and Rumely, the latter falling a point to 22.

The market closed steady. The decline in stocks continued today, after a brief period of steadiness, in the opening. The absence of demand for any class of stocks was still conspicuous, a fact which discouraged bear leaders to increase efforts, and selling was on a heavier scale than for some time. The depression was heightened by evidence of liquidation, a wide variety of investment stocks being sold. Low records were registered by a comprehensive list of issues. Before the close of the short session the volume of selling tapered off and there was some improvement in prices on short covering.

Increased country offerings lowered born July, opened unchanged to 1/4 down at 55 1/4 to 1/2 and went off to 55.

Oats fell with other grains. July first prices were 34 1/4 to 1/2, a shade to 1/4 @ 1/2 lower and a drop of 1/4 to 1/2 followed.

The heavy ton in provisions was caused by lightness of demand. Opening figures for July products were:

Pork $19.70; lard $10.74 and ribs $11.02 1/2. The range was a shade to 10c lower.

CHIEF TOPIC TODAY SOUNDED LIKE B-R-R

Those persons who sat in the blossom perfumed twilight on the front veranda last night happy in the belief that spring finally had arrived, awoke this morning, clutching their negligee closely about them and made a dash for the cedar chest in the little to brush the moth balls from their dresses and hats. Temperature during the last 24 hours dropped 30 degrees.

Mayor Shook was asked this morning what he thought of the change. "It surely is." But perhaps we had better not say what the mayor said. Anyway, you know what Sherman said about war.

FREELY WERE FUNDS GIVEN

For the Sending of Allen County Boys on Trip to Washington.

MEETING LAST NIGHT VERY SUCCESSFUL

Prizes for Corn Contest Are Guaranteed by Liberal Crowd.

A fund of six hundred and fifty dollars that was last night guaranteed will provide the requisite transportation for four youths from Allen county to go to Washington D. C. with the corn special next fall. There will be one boy from each of the townships in the county, while from one township there will be two boys fortunate. In each township the boy winning out in that township will be awarded a prize of a trip with this crowd, while in the twelfth township two will go. It has been provided that the boy raising the most corn on the acre in the entire county shall be provided with one trip. As this same boy would also be the winner in his own township, it was decided that the second man in that township should be given the premium.

There was a meeting called for last evening for 7:30 in the rooms of the Progressive association, for the purpose of deciding upon a plan, and ways and means whereby the Allen county delegation for the Buckeye Boys' Corn Contest might be furnished with sufficient funds to make the prize trip in the fall. The result of the meeting was far in advance of the most optimistic expectation.

T. P. Riddle, the organizer for the state board of agriculture, working under the direction of Hon. A. F. Sandies, was present at the meeting and explained all of the details of the contest to those present. It was largely through the efforts of Mr. Riddle that the contest and the prize trip of last season were so pre-eminently successful. Thoroughly conversant with every detail of the contest and trip, Mr. Riddle's explanations were very clear and convincing, and the clear understanding immediately gained was in large part responsible for the immediate contribution to the fund.

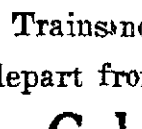

The Lima Progressive association agreed to raise a fund of three hundred dollars, an amount sufficient to pay the way of six of the boys on the trip to Washington. It was announced that the business men of Delphos would send the winning boy in their township, Marion Waldo Berryman will provide the ways and means for the youth in Shawnee township, where he lives, F. P. Hardin agreed to look after the boy from Perry township. The business men of Columbus Grove have agreed to settle for the youth from Monroe township, the Allen County Agricultural society will furnish funds for another lad, and the Allen County Progressive club will furnish the twelfth. Added to these regular prizes there is the one that is open to any boy in the county, that was put up by the Allen County Agricultural society some time ago.

Upon the suggestion of Frank P. Hardin, of Perry township, a director in the Chester White association, the Lima Progressive association, through their secretary, sent an invitation to the Chester White association to hold their annual meeting in this city next summer. This meeting would bring delegates from all parts of the United States in which swine are raised, and would be a wonderful advertisement for this city. The suggestion was well taken by the meeting and met with immediate favor.

The secretary of the Progressive association was further requested to send word to the Ohio Fair Managers' association to the effect that Lima was expecting their meeting in December, and that everything possible for their convenience and comfort would be provided.

Frank L. Maire, the president of the Progressive association, presided at the meeting. Others present included Otis T. Lippincott, C. A. Graham, U. M. Shannon, T. P. Riddle, F. E. Harman, Waldo Berryman, George L. Newson, and Walter Conroy, the secretary of the Progressive association.

Pimples Should Be Watched

May be Means of Absorbing Disease Germs in Most Unexpected Manner.

The world renowned laboratory of the Swift Specific Company has collected a vast amount of information regarding the spread of blood disease. In thousands of instances the most virulent types have been the result of coming in contact with disease germs in public places, and the apparently insignificant pimple has been the cause. It spreads with astonishing rapidity, often infecting the entire system in a few days.

It is fortunate, however, that there is a remedy to cope quickly and thoroughly with such a condition, and thanks to the energy of its producers the famous S. S. & S. may now be had at almost any drug store in the civilized world. This preparation stands alone as a blood purifier. It is somewhat revolutionary in its composition, since it accomplishes all that was ever claimed for mercury, iodides, arsenic, and other destructive and purely vegetable products. It contains one ingredient which serves the active purpose of stimulating each tiny cellular part of the tissues to the healthy and judicious selection of its own essential nutriment. There are more cases of articular rheumatism, locomotor ataxia, paresis, neuritis, and similar diseases resultant from the use of minerals than most people are aware of. These facts are brought out in a highly interesting book compiled by the medical department of The Swift Specific Co., 137 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. It is mailed free, together with a special letter of advice, to all who are struggling with a blood disease.

Get a bottle of S. S. & S. to-day of your druggist. It will surprise you with its wonderful action in the blood.

PEITICOAT SWINDLERS

Operate Forgery Game Successfully in Three Cities.

THE ART MILLINERY ON CENTRAL AVENUE

Cashes a Check Which Later Turns Out to be Worthless.

Police are hot on the trail of a clever band of forgers who last week passed a worthless check on employees of the Art Millinery, 499 south Central avenue, owned by Mrs. Myrtle G. Metz. That the band has been operating extensively in this section of the country became known to the police when it was found the same scheme had been worked both at Ft. Wayne and Van Wert.

An old game with a few improvements to add further plausibility, the police say has worked successfully in three different cities within the last week.

According to the story told the police, a man and woman entered the millinery. The woman looked over the hats but before her decision to accept one, the couple was joined by another couple. A conversation started and the latter couple left without making a purchase.

The woman was shown another hat which seemed to strike her fancy. As she started to pay for the purchase she looked about her in feigned horror. "That other woman took my pocketbook," she cried. But then she went on to explain that it didn't matter as the woman had promised to meet her and her husband a short time later.

Noticing that the two women had seemed most friendly the clerk suspected nothing. The woman gave the hat of her choice back to the clerk. "I can't take it now that I haven't any money," she said regretfully.

A sudden inspiration seemed to come to her. "I have a check here," she said. "If I could only get it cashed." The obliging clerk looked over the check which was for $11.75, and promised to get it cashed for her.

The check was cashed, the hat wrapped up and the couple left. The first intimation that anything was wrong came yesterday when the check was returned from the Cleveland Savings and Trust Company, upon whom it was drawn, marked no funds. The police were notified and found the same trick had been worked successfully in Ft. Wayne and in Van Wert. The description given by employees of the Art Millinery and that given by the other victims tallied exactly.

The check which was presented by the couple was made payable to Harry A. Campbell by the Sterling Coal Company per H. D. Hilman, treasurer. The offices of the company are purported to be located at 2735 Lorain avenue, Cleveland.

CITY LABOR WAGE SCALE

Discussion by City Council With a View of Making Increase.

PROPOSED PLAN OF INCREASED WAGES

Will Probably be Adopted by Council at the Next Regular Meeting.

The county commissioners will come to the rescue of the street department in its attempt to get a better scale of wages for its employees if the plans of council which met last night as a committee of the whole in the office of the service director, materialize. This conclusion was regarded as the most practical at the meeting last night when for two hours members of the council attempted to devise a means of readjustment of the scale.

Councilmen Standish, Justice and Finchbaugh were named to confer with the county commissioners regarding the use of a portion of the $15,000 recently transferred to the city by the county. At the time the commissioners turned the money over to the city it was for the purpose of repaving, rather than maintaining the streets.

Service Director Morris opened the discussion by the declaration that it daily was becoming more difficult for the city to secure labor under the present scale. With contractors offering the men from five to seven and a half cents more per hour, competent labor is hardly obtainable. Ridiculously low wages paid city employees were brought to light during the discussion.

Under the proposal submitted by Councilman Standish the laborers in the street department would receive a monthly salary of $45, or an hourly wage of about 20 cents. The present scale in the street repair and cleaning department is 17 1/2 cents per hour for labor and 45 cents for teams. Under the proposal an increase of five cents would be given to city teams. In the sidewalk and sewer department the rate would be raised from 20 to 22 1/2 cents; and a five cent raise would be made in both the waterworks and park departments. Laborers in the waterworks department would be given an increase from 17 1/2 to 22 1/2 while experienced workmen would be raised from 25 to 30 cents per hour.

Under the plan of Councilman Standish, men in the departments would be put on a regular monthly scale. In the street repair department a salary of $45 was proposed for laborers and $84 for teams. Two superintendents at $780 per annum would have charge of the actual work. Flushing on a basis of eight laborers and four teams, the cost of maintenance would amount to $8,912.

In the street cleaning department the tentative proposal provides for eight men at $45 per month and three carts at $55 per month. This force would work during the entire year. A force working seven months out of the year would be one cart at $55 per month, two sweeper teams at $90; a sprinkler team at $90 and one flusher team at $100. These with a superintendent at $780 per annum would amount to $10,485. The proposal submitted gives the figures on a working basis upon which the department might figure the costs.

After making the proposed revisions the pay roll would amount to $16,362 for the two departments whereas only $13,000 is available for the purpose this year. With the view of reaching an agreement with the commissioners whereby the city will be allowed to use $3,000 of the $15,000 for maintenance rather than for repair, the above named committee will meet with the county commissioners.

Everything Double Except the Price
Thin double boning gives twice the strength and greater flexibility than a single boning of equal weight.
Double interlining prevents the boning punching through. It strengthens and lengthens the life of the corset.
Double side steels give extra support to the woman who breaks her corsets, and are twice as easy as the ordinary single bone.
Some Warner Models have the patented "Double Skirt"—the ideal long corset for summer wear—soft and light above the waist, but below the waist an extra layer of strong batiste prevents the lightest corset from ripping.
You can wear the longest skirt and lace it ever so tightly, and it is comfortable Standing, Sitting or Walking.

NEW APPARATUS FOR Y. M. C. A. GYMNASIUM
There has just been installed a new striking box drum of the adjustable type and of the pattern, being the best piece of apparatus of its kind that is made. With the new striking bag in place this latest addition to the Gymnasium equipment fills a long felt need and is delighting the large number of the members who get a great deal of pleasure from exercise of this kind. This is the fourth piece of apparatus that has been purchased this season, the others being a spring board, a vaulting horse, and parallel bars, all representing a value of over $200. The effect of this improvement upon the interest and spirit of the members is very marked and has had much to do with the enthusiasm that has prevailed throughout the season.
